The Mission Revival Style building at the corner of West Sixth Street and Blanco in old West Austin has been an active storefront since it was built in 1925. When Wiggy's closed in 2019, after 46 years, it was one of West Austin's longest-running businesses. In fall 2022, the space was reimagined as Howards Bar and Rosie's Wine Bar— two connected but distinctly different bars that will continue to serve the neighborhood as lovers of great drinks, food, and music from all over town.
